CHALLENGE

They had a brand new practice with zero visibility.

In a very competitive area of North Carolina, being at the top of page 1 for Organic searches is vital to increasing and maintaining a healthy flow of new patients.

Set back on page 5 of Google They Morrisville Dentist felt like they had a ways to go before they saw organic search bringing them new patients. This was a challenging position as they were trying to grow fast.

Their competition was well established on page one and were taking about 85% of the market share of online traffic.

SOLUTION

A comprehensive SEO and Paid Search campaign.

Referred to us by one of our partners at DentalCMO, Dr. Na reached out to The SEO Dentist for help with their SEO and Google Ads.

The SEO Dentist conducted a comprehensive audit for both Dr. Na's website as well as the competitors to examine the following:

- Current keyword positioning and traffic sources.
- The current "SEO equity", also known as, Domain Strength of their website
- Onsite content and keyword mapping
- Technical SEO issues, site speed, website architecture and more.

SOLUTION

Our audit identified multiple issues, with recommendations for the following action items:

- Increase internal linking to home pages and service pages to better define website hierarchy.
- Set up and optimize a verified Google My Business.
- Build out a strong network of citations and social properties.
- Acquire niche relevant backlinks to drive referral traffic and power up their website.

With the help of The SEO Dentist, The Morrisville Dentist team was able to quickly implement the first two recommendations of the audit almost immediately.

The others would require more intensive efforts by The SEO Dentist team.

Together, they generated an itemized to do list that would be execute The SEO Dentist. They handled the entire process, from citation set-up/clean-up to conducting link outreach and building.

RESULTS

After about 4 months Dr Na was starting to see results. In addition to SEO, we deployed a multi-faceted Google Ads campaign to supplement the gradual results of SEO.

Several of their biggest keywords jumped to prominent positions on page 1 and organic begin to pick up and so did call volume.
